1861 Census

For the purposes of the 1861 Census (7th April 1861), the Parish of Lochbroom was divided into Enumeration Districts: each was allotted to a Census Enumerator.
The numbers in brackets (1 etc.) are those of the pages in the original Enumerator's Reports.

Enumeration District 5: Mr Roderick Campbell

Foigh (1)
Braemore (2)
Achindrean, Lochibraon, Lochined (3)
Achlunachan (4-7)
Croftown (8-11)
Clachan (12)

Enumeration District 6: Mr Kenneth Robertson

Letter (1-8)
Ardindrean (9-11)
Rhiroy (11-12)
Blarnalevoch`(12-16)
Loggie (16-18)
Altnaheri (18)

The person's place of birth is given. If none is indicated here, this means that the person was born in the Parish of Lochbroom. The spelling of place-names is as in the original Enumerator's Report.
These spellings were never standardised.

The numbers 1., 2. etc. in the following lists are not in the original Census Enumerator's Reports; they give the order in which the families appear in the Reports; which presumably is the order in which the Enumerator visited the dwellings, so perhaps their spatial position on the ground.
Of course there were no street numbers.

← or < indicates that the same person appeared in the 1851 Census, at the given numbered position in the same township.
→ or > indicates that the same person occurs again in the 1871 Census, at the given numbered position.

w. means wife; s. means son; d. means daughter; W means widow or widower.

For each dwelling the number of rooms with a window is recorded (though not always visible on the Enumerator's sheet). Here this number is indicated thus: .2.

Census 1861

Enumeration Division No. 5

'That part of the Parish of Lochbroom extending along both sides of the River Broom, called Big Strath, and continued in a south direction, until its junction with the Parish of Contin, consisting of Clachan, Crofton, Inverbroom, Achlunachan, Achindrean, Lochibhraon, Braemore, Lubmattack, Milton, Glackgour, Foigh and Cottage, and computed to contain 50 families.'
